

Dr. Don Lincoln is a Fermilab scientist and science popularizer. He is coauthor of over 1,700 scientific papers and was a member of the teams that discovered the top quark and the Higgs boson. He has authored several books about physics aimed at a general audience and he hosts the Fermilab YouTube channel, where he has made nearly 200 videos on topics ranging from the quarks to the cosmos.