

Dear Educators,

We're pleased to invite you to "Science Educators' Day" (EDAY), a special free dinner and educational workshop hosted by The Optical Society \(OSA\) for pre-college educators! This program will focus on effective and innovative approaches to science education, with an emphasis on hands-on, interactive classroom activities.

Cost: FREE!
Date: Wednesday, 21 October
Time: 5:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. (Dinner provided)
Location: Regency Ballroom 1, Fairmont San Jose

The registration process is EASY. To confirm your attendance simply complete the registration form.
This year's EDAY program features:

- Special Guest Speaker: Eric Mazur; Harvard University, USA, Interactive Teaching and Peer Instruction
- A complimentary dinner with other local science educators
- Interactive science demonstrations by OSA Student Chapters
- Door prizes and so much more!

Please forward this message on to your colleagues who may be interested in attending – registration is free and open to anyone with an interest in science education!

To learn more about OSA and EDAY, please visit our Frontiers in Optics \(FIO\) page and check out our FREE online youth education resources.

We hope to see you there!

Sincerely,
